

Guidelines of Application for Wang Jin-Pyng's Scholarship for Indigent Students of National Changhua University of Education

Regulated on Aug.21, 2013
Amended on Feb.10, 2015

1. The Scholarship is financially supported by Dr. Yin Yen-Liang to encourage indigent students as showing his gratitude to Mr. Wang Jin-Pyng who was guiding and caring Dr. Yin so much as his tutor at Changhua Jinde Experimental High School in which National Changhua University of Education (hereinafter referred to as the University) is located nowadays. The Guidelines of Application for Wang Jin-Pyng's Scholarship for Indigent Students (hereinafter referred to as the Guidelines) was set by the University for receiving applications and carrying out evaluation of the scholarship.
2. Eligibility: (all the three requirements below shall be met)
  - 2.1 The students of the University who are qualified as the children in a low-income, mid-income family or family in hardship with a certificate when applying for the scholarship.
  - 2.2 An applicant's academic record of last semester shall be ranked top 50% in the class; conduct grade shall be scored 85 points or above without records of any demerits.
  - 2.3 An applicant shall not be granted other scholarships managed by the University on behalf of the sponsors.
3. Quota and Prize: 20 students will be granted the scholarship every semester. Each of them will be awarded NT$ 10,000 and issued a certificate in the public occasion.
4. Time for Application: applications shall be submitted to Office of Student Affairs in March and October of every year (details will be announced by Office of Student Affairs).
5. The following documents shall be attached when applying:
  - a) Application Form (please download it from the webpage "Downloads" of Office of Student Affairs);
  - b) The original transcript of the last semester (contains class ranking);
  - c) Original Certificate of Low-Income Status, Mid-Income Status or Family in Hardship Status.
6. Evaluation Procedure:

Dean of Academic Affairs, Chief Secretary and Deans of all Colleges are convened as members of Evaluation Team by Dean of Student Affairs to hold Evaluation Meetings. Applicants will be prioritized by their class rankings. If there is a tie in class ranking, the applicant with higher average grade will be prioritized under the considerations of balance among colleges as well as the credits they obtained.
7. The Scholarship is funded by the donation of Dr. Yin Yen-Liang.
8. The Guidelines shall go into effect after being ratified by President. The same procedure shall be applied to the amendments likewise.
